This single (aka LENC13) is available as a free MP3 download from Line Out Records. (tell your friends!)

History Of Guns are: Del Alien - the voice, Max Rael - machines/guitars. Stagger Lee played bass on 'When You Don't Matter'.

'When You Don't Matter' was written by Alien/Rael. 'Spice Up Your Life' was originally written by Stannard/Rowe/Spice Girls, alternate lyrics by Max Rael & Dean Soby. The title 'Slice Up Your Wife' is from an overheard conversation between two members of staff at Forbidden Planet in London back in 1997. (viva) 'Forever' was written by Max Rael. Photography by Falguni Clarkson. Design by Max Rael.

History Of Guns' next album release will be 'Whatever You Do, Don't Turn Up At Twelve' hopefully by the end of the year, but these things always take longer than they should. This will be followed by 'Half Light' and then ultimately 'Eschatology'.

Thank you for listening. We love you.
