Earth Loop Recall - The Bitter Begin

Line Out Records will shortly be releasing the limited edition Earth Loop Recall single The Bitter Begin. The title track is taken from the forthcoming Earth Loop Recall album This Means Nothing To You which will be released by Line Out Records later this year. The single, which is limited to 200 numbered copies, also features the tracks Elevator Music and Beyond Repair. The single will also be released through selected digital stores.

Earth Loop Recall are Ben McLees, Joanna Quail, Tim Clark and Dan Vickers. The band formed in 2001 and released their first album (Compulsion) on Wasp Factory Recordings in 2004. Following a hiatus of two years the current line up was formed in November 2006, when they were signed to Line Out Records. They are currently playing gigs around the country.

Earth Loop Recall sound like themselves. If forced to describe the music, it would be a mixture of modern progressive post-rock with electro-rock elements. They are angry but in a controlled, focused manner.

"I love Earth Loop Recall, their combination of gorgeous post-rock sound and absolute rage reminds me that amongst all the mediocre banal dross in the world, there are still some rare examples of true talent and passion. Working with artists of such a calibre is why I still do this." - Bob @ Line Out Records

Press Quotes for Earth Loop Recall

"with outstanding, upbeat tracks like Optimism Creeping In, Petra Lena and Mesh displaying a technical maturity beyond both their level and their years.... Earth Loop Recall represent Wasp Factory's greatest commercial hope yet"
Rock Sound, review of Compulsion

"ELRs skill lies not so much in their ability to articulate a sense of pain and loss but in their ability to articulate the bloody struggle to claw oneself back from such feelings and tonight there is indeed, as the man said, a very real sense of 'Optimism Creeping In.'... Earth Loop Recall are once again one of the best bands you havent yet heard of. You should do something about that."
Londonist, live review

"I'm happy to report that the Earth Loop Recall have lost none of their steaming intensity, none of their almost psychedelic force. That's not psychedelic as in 'Look at all the pretty colours', by the way. It's psychedelic as in 'I think my head's fucked up'."
